JAPANESE ADVANCING

Plans For the Coming Fight All Completed.

THE CHINESE ARE RETREATING.

The Japanese in Good Health and Spirits and Eager to Capture Moukden by November 3, and Spoil the Emperor's Birthday—The Latest News From the Seat of War.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 27.—The latest dispatches from the front states that the Chinese outposts are falling back upon Kulienchas where it is expected that the only really determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal Yamagata's plans are completed in every detail for inflicting what he hopes will turn out to be a crushing blow upon the Chinese. Several columns of Japanese troops are acting in concert after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at the battle of Ping-Yang, and it is expected that they will deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position.

If the Japanese field marshal's plans are carried out in the manner indicated in the dispatches from the front it is probable that the network of the invaders will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight on Saturday, thus enabling the Japanese attack to be delivered at dawn on Sunday. But if the Japanese columns succeed in occupying the positions assigned to them previous to midnight on Saturday it is believed that the attack will be delivered at the earliest possible moment. Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported strength of the Chinese position at Kulienchas, and General Nodzu is said not to be quite certain himself, as spies and prisoners have furnished various reports on the subject. It is reported that the Chinese batteries at Kulienchas have been increased from three to 11, but on the other hand, rumor has it that it is extremely doubtful whether all these batteries are fully armed.

The weather is favorable, the Japanese are in good health and spirits and are eager to capture Moukden before Nov. 3, the emperor's birthday.

Dispatches to the London Times.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A dispatch to The Times from Tien-Tsin says that 37 transports were sighted Wednesday, making towards Tientsin-Kiao (Hai-Yun-Tan) near the scene of the late naval battle.

The Times Yokohama correspondent says it is believed in that city that the second Japanese army, numbering 22,000 men, landed at Shan-Ching, north of Tientsin bay on Tuesday.

Chinese Foreign Office Changed.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A dispatch received in this city states that the Chinese foreign office at Nankin has been transferred to Shanghai by an imperial order.

ENTOMBED MINERS ALIVE.

Some Hope For the Men Imprisoned in the Pewabic Mine.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Oct. 27.—The only fact established at this hour is that a number of the men imprisoned at the Pewabic mine are alive. Who and how many will not be known for several hours yet. Communication was established by means of hammering on rocks. The men are well supplied with air. They have now been imprisoned over 30 hours, and their release will not be effected for six or more hours.

Superintendent Brown is certain that at least eight of the men have escaped uninjured, but fears three may have been caught under the falling mass of timbers and rocks and crushed to death. Around the shaft are gathered large crowds of relatives including the wives of the imprisoned miners, and the uncertainty of the fate of loved ones makes the scene a particularly heartrending one.

Death of a Prominent Southern Lawyer.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 27.—Judge William G. Brooks, one of the most eminent lawyers in the south, aged 80 years, dropped dead at the supper table at Birmingham, Ala., last night of heart disease. He was born in South Carolina, but removed to Alabama before the war, and was for years on the bench. He was conspicuous in southern affairs both before and after the war. He presided at the national Democratic convention which met in Charleston, S. C., in 1860, and nominated John C. Breckinridge for president. He was afterward presiding officer of Alabama's secession convention. He continued to practice law up to the time of his death.

Strike Over the Color Line.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 27.—The screwmen have inaugurated a strike along the river front. Early during the forenoon every man of the organization put down his tools and work was at an end. The strike grows out of the recent difficulties between the whites and blacks. The appearance along the river front of firms of negro stevedores, hiring negro screwmen caused trouble and the white screwmen having been charging that the negroes have been cutting rates.

Killed by Cars.

ATHENS, O., Oct. 27.—James R. Anderson, aged 24, was killed by the cars two miles north of here last night while stealing a ride on the Kanawha & Michigan railroad. He was a member in good standing of the Oddfellow lodge at Bellaire, and also belonged to the U. M. W. of A.

SAFETY DEPOSIT VAULT ROBBED.

Bank Officials and Detectives Unable to State How It Was Done.

OMAHA, Oct. 27.—The fact was made public yesterday afternoon that the safety deposit vault section of the Omaha National bank had been robbed and in so dexterous a manner that no clew to the manner in which the work was done is obtainable. Large sums of money have been taken from boxes in the vaults and the exact amount of the losses can not be known until all have been examined.

The discovery was made more than two weeks ago and every precaution has been taken by the bank officials to keep the matter a close secret. Chief of Police Seavey and one of his detectives have been working industriously upon the case, and J. H. Millard, president of the Omaha National bank has given the larger share of his time since the discovery to an effort to unravel the mystery surrounding the case.

The principal loser is William Gladish. Mr. Gladish has been the lessee of a box in the vaults of the Omaha National for a number of years. Last March he placed in his box the sum of $2,700 in gold. On Oct. 5 he discovered that about $1,200 of the amount was missing. He at once notified Mr. Millard, and the investigation commenced. So far, however, all efforts to discover the manner in which the money was lost have failed and the bank authorities, as well as the police, are as much in the dark as ever. The bank officials place every reliance upon the parties who have any connection with the management of the vault and are thoroughly in the dark as to how the losses have occurred.

Another party reports that three $100 bills have been taken from a box. The vaults are under the management of a lady, who is in every way fitted for the responsibility of the position she occupies. No shadow of suspicion exists that the losses have occurred through her knowledge or connivance. The safety vaults are modelled after the best system in the country, and the private boxes are surrounded with every safeguard the ingenuity of science can devise, besides which the lessee has a password, and no two individuals can have the same password.

It is suggested that a person not entitled to open any given box may secure possession of the keys surreptitiously. But the possession of the key alone will not enable a stranger to open a box. He must also give the private password.

The bank officials or detectives offer no other than the declaration that it is not due to the carelessness of bank employees. All deposits are guaranteed by the bank.

Another Match May Be Made.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—Champion Corbett, in answering a telegram from W. A. Brady announcing that Peter Maher, the Irish champion, had posted a forfeit of $500 in New York for a match with Steve O'Donnell, the big Australian, for a battle for $2,500 or $10,000 a side, wired Brady that Steve was willing to make the match. He wants it to take place about the same time set for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Corbett is satisfied that O'Donnell can whip Maher.

Two Fishing Smacks Lost.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Oct. 27.—Two fishing smacks, belonging to this port, the David Mitchell, Captain George D. Moxham, and Sea Foam, Captain Charles Mitchell, have not as yet been heard from. They have been out from this port 28 days. Even if afloat, the water and provisions carried by them would have long since been exhausted.

Hour of Bliss Delayed.

LEBANON, O., Oct. 27.—Marshal Mason of Piqua captured Ed Tagler here with a rig he hired from Robinson & Randolph a month ago to go to the county fair. He had traded off the horse, but it was recovered. Tagler is engaged to be married to a young woman in Conover, but as he has a wife and family in Dayton the wedding will have to be postponed.

Can Not Put Up For His Brother.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 27.—Word has been received here that Judge Morris' brothers at Circleville, one of whom is cashier of a bank there, will not make good the judge's defalcation, owing to the fact that if they do settle he will be open to prosecution on account of his forgeries. This is their decision, after a conference.

She Was Fined.

CALDWELL, O., Oct. 27.—A few days ago Louise F. Ullum, an 8-year-old Woodfield girl, was kicked on the head by a horse and painfully injured. Recovering slightly from this accident, she was playing on a high fence, when she lost her balance and fell. Her playmates also fell, and in so doing struck her on the head. Miss Ullum grew rapidly worse and died the next day.

Dead Body Found on the Track.

CHAUCEY, O., Oct. 27.—An unknown man was found dead on the Ohio Central railroad track two miles below here yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. His body was considerably mangled, and it is supposed that he fell off a freight train while stealing a ride. The remains of the unfortunate man were taken to Athens for identification.

Funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Woodbridge.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Funeral services were held yesterday over the remains of Mrs. Mary A. Woodbridge, late secretary of the Woman's Christian Temperance union. The interment will be at Ravens, O.

Came Back With a Fortune.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 27.—James J. Wood, a poor carpenter, returned from Ireland Friday with $200,000, his share of an estate of his ancestors.

NEW ELDORADO.

Great Finds in the Gold Fields of Western Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The steamer Alameda, which arrived here yesterday brought only three passengers from Australia. This was owing largely to the fact that nearly everybody was on the rush to the gold fields of western Australia—Coolgardie. While the steamer was in Sydney harbor over a thousand miners arrived from the New Zealand gold fields en route for the new Eldorado. Some of the finds are phenomenal, and in one instance four cuts of rock yielded 555 ounces of gold.

The Londonderry mine, one of the first discovered, was sold to an English syndicate just before the steamer sailed for $1,250,000. Lack of water is the great drawback. A quart of the fluid costs 50 cents, a pound of meat 60 cents and 100 pounds of flour $25.

HEALED BY FAITH.

A Paralytic Recovers After Being in Bed For Seventeen Years.

ENGLISH, Ind., Oct. 27.—Abram Stonefield of Marietta, after 17 years' confinement to bed by reason of illness, resulting from paralysis, has recovered his physical vigor. He claimed that he was told by He who died for sinners that he would recover when he had atoned for his own sins and those of his forefathers.

Last Tuesday his sister found him sitting up in bed and speculating on a possibility of being able to walk. Soon he found that he had use of his limbs. Crowds of friends and acquaintance have called to verify the report of his convalescence, to all of whom he says that he was cured by faith. Mr. Stonefield is 37 years old. He lived with a widowed sister, both of whom are known for their charitable deeds.

HOT AFTER THE COOK GANG.

The Posses Is Now Only Half an Hour Behind the Bandits.

TABLETOWN, I. T., Oct. 27.—A courier has just arrived with the information that Sheriff Proctor and a posse of Cherokees are hot on the trail of Cook and his gang of robbers, being only half an hour behind the bandits.

Last night Louisa Cook, a sister of the leader of the notorious gang, rode into Fort Gibson and terrorized the people of that place by shooting into houses and defying arrest. She filled the depot full of lead from her pistol. After driving the frightened citizens off the street she galloped through a squad of deputy marshals and out of town in true bandit queen style.

Beaten by a Pretended Patrolman.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 27.—William Roberts, recently in the west, but who returned to Bluffton a few days ago, was accosted early yesterday morning at the Clover Leaf railway station, in that place, by a man representing himself to be an officer. The policeman led him to the eastern part of the town, and, striking him several stunning blows with a club, robbed him of $100. Upon recovering consciousness Roberts related his story to the night watchman, but his assailant has not been discovered.

Knights of Pythias Case Decided.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—Judge Brown sustained the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, in its suit vs. Koerner lodge for property. Koerner lodge succeeded because the supreme lodge ruled out the German ritual. It surrendered its charter, but held its property. The ruling is in favor of the grand lodge. The case is a test and is regarded as important, in that it will be followed by other suits throughout the United States. An appeal will be taken.

Big Increase in the Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The cash balance in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $112,711,431; gold reserve, $61,140,539. The increase in the gold reserve was about $500,000, and during the last three days $1,621,054. Yesterday's increase was due to purchases of gold of the mints.

Charged With Counterfeiting.

REDEY, Ind., Oct. 27.—A sensation was created here yesterday by the arrest of Charles Shephard, a prominent young man, on the charge of counterfeiting. The headquarters of a gang was located on a farm three miles north-east of there. A United States marshal took Shephard to Indianapolis.

Defaulting Official Suicides.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Oct. 27.—Daniel McClintic, for four years past the trustee of Clifty township, and the defeated Democratic candidate for county auditor, committed suicide yesterday by taking poison at his home in Newbern. He is known to be about $5,000 short in his township accounts.

A Lynx at Large.

ENGLISH, Ind., Oct. 27.—The wild animal which has been seen prowling in the woods near here has been identified as a lynx. So far no armed man has succeeded in coming within range of the beast.

Hunter Accidentally Kills Himself.

DOLPHOS, O., Oct. 27.—Henry Tall, aged 16, living about 15 miles west of here, accidentally killed himself with a shotgun while hunting.

Child Attacked by a Dog.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 27.—The 5-year-old son of John Gross, was attacked by a vicious dog, and his face torn into shreds.

CANADIAN-AUSTRALIAN CABLE.

Sanford Fleming Interviewed About His Trip to the Pacific Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Sanford Fleming, commissioner from the Canadian government to Hawaii, in the interest of the proposed Canadian-Australian cable, arrived here on the steamer Alameda. In an interview he spoke freely of his mission to the Pacific islands, whither he was accompanied by W. H. Mercer of the colonial office in London.

Mr. Fleming declared that there was nothing secret about their mission. The governments of Canada and Australia, he said, have resolved to lay a Pacific cable. There are a number of islands in possession of Great Britain between Australia and Canada, across which the cable might be stretched as stepping stones across the ocean. He mentioned the Solomon, Gilbert and Fiji groups and Norfolk and Panning islands. With stations at these points there would be no absolute necessity for landing the cable on islands which are not British.

However, the projectors of the enterprise appreciate the business considerations which makes it essential any Pacific cable shall touch all islands of Samoa and Hawaii. Samoa, it is proposed to reach by a short branch from Fiji, and it would be possible to connect Hawaii by a branch from the nearest midocean station at Panning island, a British possession, which, however, is over 500 miles distant from Honolulu. To avoid this long waste of cable it was deemed necessary to obtain a route nearer the Hawaiian group. To secure the necessary concessions from Hawaii was the mission of Messrs. Fleming and Mercer to the islands.

Concerning the measure of their success, Mr. Fleming said: "In the Hawaiian government evinced any desire to meet us we were instructed to open negotiations and to point out and on what terms the Hawaiian people could secure the advantages of a telegraphic service. After a number of interviews with the principal officials of the Hawaiian government, a cordial understanding was reached, and before our departure we left with them a memorandum of agreement, the terms of which we are prepared to recommend to those whom we represent. We did not ask them to cede any island or any portion of Hawaiian territory to us.

"What we did ask was that they should lease to us Bird or Necker or some other uninhabited islands outside the main group, probably 300 or 400 miles from Honolulu, to be used as a telegraph midocean station only. From there a branch line would be run to Honolulu. We asked for no exclusive rights for telegraph connection but we proposed, if given a satisfactory lease of one of these islands and a subsidy of $35,000 per annum for 15 years, to establish and maintain connection with the nearest cable station on the American coast, our charges from Honolulu to be one shilling a word for ordinary messages, nine pence a word for government messages and six pence for press messages.

"The arrangement is, of course, subject to the approval of all the governments concerned and I may mention that the United States has something to say in the matter. By the terms of Hawaii's treaty of reciprocity with the United States, Hawaii is forbidden to grant any other power any lease or lien upon any portion of territory. It is quite understood that the first step of the Hawaiian government will be to appeal to Washington for assent to grant the privileges which we ask. No difficulty is anticipated."

It is understood that Messrs. Fleming and Mercer will proceed to Washington to urge their cause.

At Honolulu her majesty's steamship Hyacinthe, was at their service, accompanied by the British minister, they were taken on the Hyacinthe to inspect Bird island and make the necessary soundings in the vicinity.

BUILDING BLOWN TO PIECES.

Inexpert Use of Dynamite by Bank Robbers in an Iowa Town.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Oct. 27.—The Farmers' National bank of Malvern, a town about 40 miles south of here, was wrecked and looted by robbers about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The vault and safes inside of the vault were blown to pieces, the concussion completely wrecking the inside fixtures of the building.

Three distinct explosions were heard, the third awakening residents in the neighborhood, who arose and repaired to the scene, but did not arrive until the robbers had flown. Some of the money was found in the street and some bills and securities were found in the debris by the bank officials. It is estimated that the robbers got away with between $12,000 and $13,000. The county is being searched for miles around for the robbers. The bank officials state that the depositors will lose nothing, the bank sustaining all the loss.

Beat All Records Across the Ocean.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Cunard line steamer Lucania arrived yesterday evening from Liverpool via Queenstown, having broken her previous and fastest passage on record by 25 minutes. She made the run from Queenstown in 5 days 7 hours and 25 minutes, covering a distance of 2,779 knots at an average speed of 21.81 knots an hour. She experienced moderate east and northeast winds, with high seas and squally weather during the passage.

Death of General Amos Beckwith.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—General Amos Beckwith, who was chief of the commissary department of General W. T. Sherman's army during the civil war, died at his home here about midnight of pneumonia. He was 69 years old and was on the retired list of the army.

BUSINESS IS BETTER

Indications Are More Favorable Than a Week Ago.

GOLD EXPORTS HAVE CEASED.

Quite a Number of Mills Have Gone Into Operation and the Demand For Products If Not Equal to That of Prosperous Years Is Better Than It Has Been.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Engrossing political excitement in many of the states causes a natural slackening in some kinds of business. But on the whole business indications are rather more favorable than they were a week ago. Gold exports have ceased, quite a number of mills have gone into operation and the demand for products, if not equal to that of prosperous years, is better than it has been most of the time this year.

The prices of farm products do not improve much, and there are still some strikes to resist reduction of wages, so that the purchasing power of the people can not have materially increased, but there is a more hopeful spirit which prompts greater activity. On the other hand, the record of past transactions is somewhat less favorable than of late. Payments through the principal clearinghouses throughout the country show a decrease of one-half per cent, compared with last year, and a decrease of 21.9 per cent compared with the same week in 1892, the decrease for four weeks being 29.8 per cent.

Cotton has sold at 5.51 cents for middling uplands, and the large receipts at such low prices indicate clearly that the crop will at least be close to the largest, if not the largest, ever produced. The anticipated settlement of difficulties at Fall River has not been realized, and at present a good many spindles and looms are idle. But strikes are temporary; a more lasting influence is the large accumulation of cotton in the world's markets, the stock of American in sight now exceeding 2,000,000 bales. It is interesting to find, in spite of the low price of the principal southern crop, manufacturers and wholesale dealers report rather more improvement in trade with the south than with any other section.

The wheat market is lower and nothing appears to justify any important change. Western receipts have been 4,816,571 bushels against 6,276,623 last year, and Atlantic exports only 5,4263 bushels against 1,066,066 last year. Corn is higher without any very clear reason, and it is noteworthy that at the same time pork is 75 cents lower; lard 35 cents per 100 pounds and hogs 40 cents lower. The contrast indicates how little the provision market depends at present on natural relations of supply and demand.

In iron and steel the west shows weakness, while eastern markets show more encouragement. Nothing of consequence is doing in rails, the deliveries for the year to Oct. 1 being only 150,000 tons, much below ordinary requirements for renewals alone. In structural work some moderate contracts are reported, but bar iron is extremely dull, and it is stated that the low prices reported last week, 95 cents for iron and $1 for steel, have been shaded in some transactions. There is a decline in wire, $1.90 being quoted for galvanized barbed and $22.50 for wire rods. The best feature is that the heavy increase in the output of pig does not seem to overload the market and there are rather less signs of pressure to sell than of late.

The demand for wool is not as large as it has been, and while prices have scarcely changed for two weeks, sales are but 4,304,250 pounds against 5,778,750 in 1892, and for four weeks 19,451,740 pounds against 25,744,750 in 1892. Prices were put down before the new tariff took effect, so that results of foreign competition are felt mainly in reduced sales of some domestic wools.

The failures for the week were 231 in the United States against 352 last year, and 52 in Canada against 44 last year.

FORGER CAPTURED.

He Succeeded in Victimizing a Number of Merchants of Small Amounts.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 27.—A seedy-looking individual has succeeded in victimizing several of our prominent merchants by presenting checks, payable to Sanford Smith, drawn on Andrew Brown of Charleston, W. Va. He purchased of W. R. Meyers a full of furniture and of Glockner a fine rifle, receiving the difference in cash.

The victims became uneasy and telegraphed to the Bank of Charleston, receiving the sad intelligence that no such man existed there. The police were notified and in the afternoon succeeded in landing the forger at Mount Zion, he having walked the distance. In the cross-examination he admitted that a friend signed the blanks and, being without money, he filled them out. His conviction is a certainty.

Steamer and All Went Down.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A German bark that has arrived at Cardiff reports that during the storm of Friday she saw an unknown steamer of about 2,000 tons burden, foundered near Ilfracombe, Devonshire. All hands on board the steamer went down with her. The bark saw the disaster too late to render any assistance.

LET THE VOTERS ANSWER.

"How does it come that when the Democrats went out of power in 1860 the Government had been run for seventy years, and there was but five millionaires in the whole United States, and was a good price, farms free of mortgages, and tramps and strikes were unknown; while after thirty years of Republican rule there are over 5,000 millionaires, land no price, and surfeited with mortgages, strikes on all hands and tramps by the million?"—Public Ledger, August 25th.

SENATOR SHERMAN made a speech a few days ago and he preached so much good democracy that the Ohio Republican Committee at once pulled him off of the stump. At least he hasn't made any more speeches.

THE Ledger says that "Mr. Wheeler sold his Canadian apples at exactly the same price that he sold American-grown apples out of a barrel that stood alongside the Canadian article." Well, according to the Ledger, apples were placed on the free list by the Wilson Bill. There was no tariff, you see, to be added to the price."

THE editor of the BULLETIN was referred to a few days ago as a Solomon. Later developments render necessary a change of name. He's an Ananias.—Public Ledger.

WE protest against being classed along with the editor of the Ledger. There is something in the make-up of the average Republican editor that absolutely renders it impossible for him to be truthful upon political topics, hence he cannot conceive of truth in another.

THE census of 1890 shows that in thirty years of Republican rule, by private taxation, the people of the country have been milked of their wealth, so that while the average wealth is the same to-day as in 1860, 4,074 families now hold $12,400,000,000 of the wealth. The people have paid it to them in private taxes. They have secured this wealth because the laws protected them in levying taxes—not tariff taxes alone—upon the masses. But under the Democratic income tax these plutocrats will be compelled to contribute between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000 yearly towards the support of the Government, and to that extent lighten the burdens of the masses.

MR. McKINLEY in his New Orleans address said: "The foreign market for agricultural products is one of the delusions of free trade. If it ever had any real substance as against a good home market that has long since disappeared."

MR. McKINLEY must take the people for a lot of ignoramuses. He should study Government statistics a little more and do less talking. Four-fifths of our exports last year were agricultural products, and

Great Britain took the biggest part of these exports. This country has about 65,000,000 people, but it turns out enough products every year to support a population of 100,000,000. In the face of such statistics Governor McKinley goes around harping about the "home market."

GOVERNOR McKINLEY is enjoying a surplus of "gentle reminders" just now. Here is one from the Uniontown (Pa.) Genius of Liberty:

"Do Republicans organs think the people of this community are idiots when they boast of the prosperity and peace which McKinleyism brought to labor? Do they imagine that the people have such short memories that they do not remember that two of the bloodiest and most disastrous conflicts in the coke region were under McKinleyism? And between these came the Homestead slaughter of labor. The long, stubborn and bloody strike of this year only ended when McKinleyism was wiped out and the new tariff law substituted. Surely the laboring people in the coke region will not forget their sufferings and sorrows under McKinleyism. It is too low an estimate to put upon their intelligence to expect them to vote to fasten such a blasting, withering curse upon themselves and the country while they are still suffering from the wounds which this McKinleyism inflicted."

THE Treasury receipts during the first twenty days of the present month amounted to $12,874,858, and the disbursements $20,587,000, leaving a deficit for the twenty days of $7,702,142. Oh, yes, Br'er Marsh; you're making a splendid record. How the country is prospering under Democratic rule, to be sure!—Public Ledger.

MR. Carlisle was compelled to pay the balance of last year's sugar bounty of about $12,000,000, and to make up the deficit of nearly one hundred million, caused by your prohibitive McKinley bill, which reduced the revenues of the government below its expenses.

IN a few months, the revenue from the income tax and the sugar tax and other tax features of the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill will be more than ample to run the Government economically administered, as it will be, by Mr. Cleveland for the next two years, no matter which party carries Congress this fall. Good times in 1895 and 1896 will give Republicanism its "Waterloo," and Democracy a century of power.

A COUPLE of Maysville's fast young lads and a couple of dissolute women started out Thursday night to paint the town red. Policeman Stockdale ran the quartette in and yesterday each of them was fined $10 and costs in the Police Court.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—Services may be expected at the usual hours to-morrow, conducted by the pastor. The subject of the sermon at night will be, "Perils to Our Young Men." A special invitation to this service is extended to young men. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. Young People's Union at 6 p. m. All who come will be made welcome.

ROBERT G. PATRICK, Pastor.

TO-MORROW afternoon in Y. M. C. A. hall the usual gospel meeting for men will be held. Mayor Cox will lead. Subject, "Choose Ye This Day Whom Ye Will Serve." The organization is now in a prosperous condition—only needing the co-operation of our business men to complete the success. If we go to the Police Court records we see daily the names of young men who are fined and imprisoned for being drunk. Is this not sufficient reason for the fathers to aid, by money and their presence, this grand and noble organization which has, more than any other institution, done more for young men in a moral, physical and spiritual sense? Come out at 3 p. m. and assist us.

GEORGE TAYLOR is still the only Democrat before the people as candidate for Justice in the Fifth Magisterial district, and, as previously stated, he shall continue to be such until the closing of the polls on the evening of November 6th. There is no question at issue in the canvass other than the one of politics, although some are trying to raise questions in order to divert votes from Mr. Taylor. The cry that he will, if elected, vote taxes on the farmers, is utterly puerile and absurd, and equally so is the claim of others that his candidacy shall probably put Catholics in office. Away with such nonsense; that originates not with Democrats, but with Republicans seeking their votes. Mr. Taylor's record in business, politics and social life will not suffer by comparison with that of any who may be engaged in detracting from his claims, whether they be Republican office seekers or weak-kneed Democrats.

THE FIGHT IN LEWIS.

The Democrats Have Got the Republicans on the Defensive in the G. O. P. Stronghold.

VANCEBURG, KY., October 26th, 1894

Maysville Bulletin: The Democrats of Lewis County are aroused as they never have been before. They are making an aggressive canvass, and have got the "Morg" Thomas cohorts on the defensive. R. D. Wilson, candidate for County Attorney, Major G. M. Boyer and James Noel Johnson are making the fur fly. James Noel Johnson's brilliant oratory arouses Democrats to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. Major Boyer appeals to the most affectionate way to the G. A. R., being an old veteran himself. Robert Wilson is the embodiment of common sense, and his talks carry conviction everywhere.

Congressman T. H. Faynter will make several speeches for Hart next week in this county. On account of the many pensions he has secured for the people in this county he can have more influence than any Democrat who could come here.

Mr. Johnson will be on the stump during the remainder of the campaign.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who haven't, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on your druggist and get a trial bottle, free. Slane at 5 o'clock, by Rev. C. C. Cox, of the Harmon Memorial Baptist Church, at the residence of the bride's parents on Hopkins avenue. It was a pink chrysanthemum wedding, and the entire house was a mass of the beauties arranged in profusion everywhere. The only attendants were two dainty flower maids—with frocks alike, of white China silk trimmed in pink satin ribbons—the little Misses Helen and Esther Slane. Mr. Vernon Fitzpatrick, little son of Dr. Fitzpatrick, bore the ring on a yellow satin cushion. He wore a Fauntleroy suit of white satin. The bride's gown was very handsome, of white corded silk, the low-cut bodice finished with a point lace berthia, headed by a band of ostrich tips; a girle of pearls confined the waist, and in her dark hair she wore a diamond star. CRISIS IN GERMANY.

Two of His Majesty's Ministers Have Resigned.

CAPRIVI AND EULENBERG.

The Emperor Has Postponed His Journey to Blankenburg—Reports Differ as to the Cause of the Sudden Change in Political Affairs—Stormy Times Are in Store in the Reichstag.

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—So many versions are current of the suddenly precipitated crisis that it would be impossible to form a definite conclusion until the matter has further developed. Yesterday's outward events were as follows:

After the services in the Russian chapel, which was attended by both Emperor William and Count von Caprivi, his majesty gave an audience to the chancellor at the castle at 2 o'clock. A quarter of an hour later Count von Eulenberg had an audience with his majesty and at 2:30 the emperor received Count Lerchenfeld, the Bavarian minister here, Count Hohenhausen of Saxony, Baron von Bulow of Wurtemberg and Dr. Jagmann of Baden, all ministers of their respective countries.

Before his majesty received these ministers, both Caprivi and Eulenberg had resigned. Reports differ as to when, some saying that Eulenberg resigned Tuesday, and that the emperor ineffectually tried to induce him to withdraw his resignation. It should be noted that Count Philip von Eulenberg, Count Botho's brother, is an intimate friend of the emperor, and author of the words of the emperor's "Song to Aegir."

The first intimation to the public of the crisis was the official announcement that the emperor had postponed his journey to Blankenburg. Any politician who had told in the morning that such a crisis was impending would have been laughed at. The greatest excitement was created when the events became known. It seems to be generally admitted that Count von Caprivi obtained the approval of the federal ministers to his moderate policy in regard to the socialists.

It is not known whether he summoned the conference of ministers without the emperor's knowledge. If he did, this may account for the crisis on the supposition that the emperor was displeased with such an attempt to place Eulenberg in a minority. It may be remembered that in 1890 the emperor called Prince Bismarck to account for consulting Dr. Windthorst, the then Clerical leader, without his knowledge, and that this was the indirect cause of Prince Bismarck's fall. If such is the case now Prince Bismarck will be a happy man.

Another report says that the question of financial reforms caused discussion. The south German states approved of Caprivi's anti-revolutionary policy, but desired him to secure the passage in the reichstag of the financial reforms proposed by Dr. Miquel and Count von Pasadowsky, secretary of the imperial treasury, but in view of last session's experience, Caprivi declined to undertake such a hopeless task.

Finally, to further complicate the matters, it is believed that the long disputed question of combining or separating the offices of imperial chancellor and Prussian premier was revived. It is stated that the emperor, tired of the intrigues the separation of these posts under Caprivi had caused, wanted to re-unite them as they were under Bismarck. If, after Eulenberg's dismissal, Caprivi had been content to reassume the Prussian premiership, the crisis might have been settled, but he declined and the emperor, insisting on his view of the question, accepted the chancellor's resignation.

Speculation is already rife as to Caprivi's possible successor. Dr. Miquel, General Brounart von Schellingsdorf, minister of war, and General Count von Waldersee are spoken of, but hope or fear is chiefly father of the thought. Until something more definite is known of the precises of the causes of the crisis, there can be no clear solution. One thing only can be said and that is that the uncertainty and anxiety of the public mind which Germany has suffered so severely in recent years will hardly be allayed by such a startling manifestation of instability in the supreme conduct of the state.

It is believed that the emperor secretly favors strong repressive measures against the socialists and Polos despite his expression of approval of Caprivi's policy, and that the next chancellor will be called upon to introduce such measures. If so, stormy times are in store in the Reichstag. The emperor is credited with being much annoyed by the papers expressing such liberal approval of Caprivi's policy. Any way, the latter's disappearance means a radical change in Germany's internal policy.

THE CZAR RESTING EASY.

Rather Encouraging Report Comes From the Sick Bedside.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 27.—The following is the last bulletin issued at Livadia showing the condition of the czar.

"The czar slept fairly well and his appetite is good. There are no convulsive or convulsive symptoms. The edema has increased."

The bulletin is signed in the regular manner by the physicians in attendance upon the czar.

It is understood that Professor Grubo has refused to operate upon the czar, not desiring to assume the responsibility of so doing.

The crown jewels are being forwarded to Livadia from Moscow in order to be used at the marriage of the czar's daughter to Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt, which ceremony has been fixed to take place on Monday next, although this date is subject to alteration in the event of unforeseen contingencies.
